COMPLETENESS

This exhibit contains all 18 messages (iMessage, SMS) in the selected conversation that are stored in the source, from Mar 3, 2025 6:02:11 PM to Mar 13, 2025 7:02:09 AM (PDT (UTC−07:00)), in the order they were sent. No message has been reworded, reordered or summarized. Redactions (1 word or phrase; phone numbers in message text) are shown as solid black bars; the redacted text is not present in this file. 1 attachment is listed by name because the file was not stored in the source.

HOW TO READ THIS EXHIBIT

Sent by the device owner (iMessage)

Sent by the device owner (SMS)

Received from another participant

#142 is each message's number in this exhibit. Times include seconds and the time zone.
Delivered and Read times come from the sender's device and appear only when the source recorded them.
Amber boxes show what a message said before it was edited. "Unsent" marks a message the sender withdrew.
Solid black bars (▮▮▮▮) are redactions; the hidden text is not in this file.

Key messages

Messages marked as key by the person who prepared this exhibit, with where to find each one. Every message also appears in full, in order, in the transcript.

Reply to #2: "Friday doesn't work. I'll get her Saturday morning."

The order says Friday 5:30. She has a recital Saturday at 10, so Friday really matters.

I want to put the holiday plan in writing so there's no confusion later. Spring break is April 14–18. Under the parenting plan, [redacted] is with me Monday through Wednesday and with you Thursday and Friday. I'm happy to swap Wednesday for Thursday if that helps with your work schedule, but I need to know by April 1 so I can book the camp. Please reply in writing either way.

Also, her dentist appointment moved to April 22 at 3:15 PM. I can take her unless you'd like to.

REDACTIONS	1 word or phrase; phone numbers in message text.
SOURCE RECORDS	Times to the second, Sender phone numbers and addresses, Delivery times, Read times, Edit history with original text, Unsent messages, Reactions, Replies, Attachments

The content SHA-256 above is computed from every message as it appears in this exhibit: its number, the exact time it was sent (UTC, to the millisecond), the service, the sender's address, the text and the attachment names and sizes. Exporting the same conversation again with the same settings gives the same value; any change to any message changes it. The SHA-256 of this PDF file itself cannot be printed inside the file, so it is recorded in the export log and hash manifest saved with the exhibit.
